

LOCAL BREVITIES.

MOONLIGHT ON TANTALUS.

When the moonflowers bloom on Tantalus, Spreading their white disks wide; Then the fairies of perfume come dancing Over the mountain side.

Swift from each deep-throated bosom, Laden with incense rare, Over the moonbeams they scamper, Over the valleys fair.

You hear the sharp voices of crickets, Awake in the long, awaying grass, And the fairies come shaking out fragrance As over the ridges they pass.

The moon rides above the blue mountains, There are clouds like a curtain below; In valleys where shadows are deepest, Like fallen stars moonflowers glow.

Sheltered from tempests' rude touch, Where the south winds oft pause to play— A ghost in the hill's quiet shadow, There's a kukui tree old and grey.

And the sweets that the fairies are strewing Afar on the breath of the night, Float up to us as we wander Abroad in the golden light.

Comes an echo of deep-toned music! 'Tis the sea on the shore far away— It lies a pale dream-ocean, Fretting its reefs with spray.

The thousand eyes of the City, That lies below to the west, Stare up to the peaceful old mountain, And twinkle in fit unrest.

MAY HALEY ROTHWELL, Honolulu, 1920.

CORONADO MINERAL WATER

Is a natural spring water from the famous springs located at Coronado Beach, California.

Thousands of people who visit California's celebrated pleasure and health resort go their to drink of this purest of waters. We bring Coronado to your door—that is, the pure, sparkling water, that has been bottled as it comes gushing from its fountain head.

The oldest Greek physicians had great faith in the curative properties of mineral spring water, and from that period until the present time, they have been sought by invalids.
